  - d. Parent conferences are Thursday and Friday of this week. They can be done in-person or virtually.
  - e. Next school year (2025-2026) will be an accreditation year with COGNIA.
  - f. Kinder & Pre-K literacy night was a success.
  - g. Heartfelt cards are being completed for the single marines.

Old Business

- Bus 35 have added a stop and the bus is now coming later to the original stops.
  - Bus 35 will now be at the front of the bus pick-up line in order to leave quicker out of the gate.
- Address AAFES lunch practices concerning advertising to parents on how to limit students access to additional lunch items, rules regarding regulating purchase, and the nutritional impact of policies.
  - Families can put an alert on the account to add a purchase limit by emailing Ms. Hatsumi with the specific limits.
    - shimabukuroh@aafes.com
    - inocentesm@aaffes.com
  - Mr. Doubrava suggested:
    - Parents should have to request to add extras and ala carte items. Parent should also receive an email when their child's account balance is getting low.
  - It was mentioned that the lunch food quality is low.
    - AAFES replied that:
      - there is a dietitian that signs off on the school menus.
      - a certain percentage of the food must be products coming from the United States.
      - There will be a survey at the end of the school year for parents to complete. It should be emailed out via the LINQ account.
